

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ukraine's Foreign Minister Joins WORLD.MINDS Executive Advisory Board, Succeeding Late Henry Kissinger

Date: Zurich, December 19, 2023

In a move that underscores the merits of global intellectual collaboration, Ukraine's Foreign Minister Dmytro Kuleba has accepted an appointment to the Executive Advisory Board of the prestigious WORLD.MINDS FOUNDATION. This appointment also carries the honor of taking over the seat previously held by the late Henry Kissinger, renowned as statesman, diplomat, author and intellectual.

Henry Kissinger, a figure synonymous with international diplomacy and geopolitical strategy, was a longstanding member of the WORLD.MINDS FOUNDATION's Executive Advisory Board until his passing. His contributions to the Board were invaluable, providing insights shaped by decades of experience in international relations. The Foreign Minister of Ukraine, with a profound understanding of current geopolitical dynamics, is uniquely positioned to build upon this legacy.

A New Perspective for Challenging Times

Ukraine, at the forefront of defending democratic values and sovereignty in challenging times, offers a vital perspective to the WORLD.MINDS community. The Foreign Minister's expertise in navigating complex international landscapes will contribute significantly to the board's discussions and initiatives.

Rolf Dobelli, Founder of WORLD.MINDS: "We are honored and privileged to welcome Minister Kuleba to our ranks. His skillful diplomatic work has significantly helped Ukraine gain international support for its efforts in fighting Russian aggression. Minister Kuleba carries the virtues of diplomacy to a new era. Freedom, self-determination, pluralism and human rights need to be defended by every new generation. His actions inspire hope for a peaceful world under the rule of law."

Dmytro Kuleba, Foreign Minister of Ukraine: "WORLD.MINDS is deeply committed to enhancing peace, progress and mutual understanding by bringing bright minds together on an international scale. Humanity is what unites us across all frontiers and dividing lines. Educated dialogue is what brings people and peoples together. I am honored and proud to be serving on the Executive Advisory Board of the WORLD.MINDS FOUNDATION helping to further this cause."
